YGMC INFORMATION

The Greater Salina Community Foundation is a collection of funds designed to link donors with charitable causes. In collaboration with our donors, the Foundation strives to enhance all areas of life including, but not limited to, education, environment, civic and human services, health care and the arts. The Greater Salina Community Foundation is not so much a place to give, but a way to give.

Youth GrantMakers Council (YGMC) is a program of the Greater Salina Community Foundation that creates and supports exciting opportunities for Saline County youth to be active leaders in their community. YGMC gives money to youth-directed projects that address community issues and challenges. YGMC is unique because young people make the decisions about which youth projects get money for their ideas! Some past projects have been renovating their high school student lounge, remodeling a meeting room for a youth program, purchasing a basketball goal for their youth group.

The representatives of YGMC are: Adria Smith, Jason Kum, Ryan Wofford, Kate Augustine, Paige Britegam, John Kum, Ethan Young, Chloe Seim, Veronica Hill, Courtney Train, Bryan Eitel, Kaylee Ferguson, Christina Bowden, Morgan Lindsay, Adam Weishaar, Ann Nguyen, and Sydney Rayl. YGMC is assisted by volunteers, Ken Miller and Stephanie Carlin, and by YGMC leader Caitlin Cox.

The members of YGMC come from five different schools all representing different backgrounds. However, all of the members have one thing in common, they all care about our community. The council's main focus is to award grants to other groups of students who wish to better the community.

Those who wish to apply for grants must meet the following criteria:

- Youth no older than eighteen
- Must complete application in full (See next page)
- Must have application in by April 1st
- Must be able to show how you plan to use the funds and how they will better the community
- Must be able to provide follow up if awarded grant
- Project location must be within Saline County

YGMC would like to thank their funding partners:

Earl Bane Foundation

Salina Regional Health Foundation

The Logan Foundation

The Darwin & Delma Sampson Fund
